Job Jot Check-Ins:

LDC: Logan found Co-cook handled, Date Booked,

Dean Bible: Everything that is required is on it, but Meg wants to embellish it.

SDC: Team hasn't really talked about it.

A Guide to Yelling: Haven't done anything... Emily will start.

Inside-Out Groups: no response from Lady

New Treasurer: Jeremy will talk to Adam Evard about it. right now, on Facebook.

Mikey's Item- Racy Photos:

It has been brought to Council's attention that a Con Parent saw a picture of shirtless people cuddling, and now this parent is reluctant to have his daughters attend Cons. Mikey tried to assuage the parent's concern, and he believes it may be fixed. Council discussed this and couldn't determine anything because there was no quorum.

Logan's Item- Kalaya Resigns:

Council's Co-Treasurer Kalaya has resigned from her position due to a lack of time. This is a serious problem for council because she would have been the experienced treasurer next year. The idea was proposed of putting an existing Council member in her position to finish her term. Adam Evard was suggested because his current position does not require work at cons, and he attends the same church as the existing treasurer meaning he'd be easy to train. Jeremy spoke to Adam and he seems to be fine with this proposal, but since Council did not have quorum no official decision was made.

Con Debrief

Things that went well	Things that could have been better
Sacramento-lost of space	Singing in worship—speeding up for coffeehouse
money	Broken ceiling
Went smoothly	Poorly instructed touchgroup co

No crime in “high crime neighborhood”	Space utilization: locked/unlocked
Adults were great	It rained
Scheduling on time	Cleaning before stuff room
Meg was lovely helping Emily out	Sunday cleaning—resources, not helping others
Food quantities and such
Worships- new con-goers helped, before coffeehouse

Worship Accessibility:

At their last meeting, Council discussed the accessibility of worship to drivers and people who enjoy getting adequate amounts of sleep. At CONrad the Coffeehouse-Worship inversion was made. It went rather well but there are still issues with programming running late. It is now Coffeehouse that runs too late for drivers to see.

YELLer Meetings:

At CONrad, no YELLer meetings occurred although Council intended to have that happen. Alexa and Jeremy Cummings should hold YELLer meetings during Elections Con as they are the deans.
